2022 Annual Report

SECU
State Employees' Credit Union®

Report of the Chair

As a member of the SECU Board of Directors and your current Chair, I consider it an honor and privilege to serve an organization that is deeply grounded in a “People Helping People®” philosophy and makes such a tremendous economic impact and advances the well-being of over two million members. Reflecting on the past fiscal year, two thoughts come to the forefront – the celebration of our rich history of serving others and exciting changes as we work to enhance our digital channels, products, and services to better serve you, wherever you are on your financial journey.

This year was an important milestone as we celebrated our 85th anniversary! Back in 1937, our founding members set out to create a not-for-profit cooperative that would become a trusted source of financial services where state employees, many of whom were being taken advantage of by unscrupulous lenders, could obtain credit while improving their economic and social condition. With just seventeen members and $437 in deposits, their vision and mission of helping others came to life through State Employees’ Credit Union.

Remaining grounded and resolute in our original mission, we have come a long way from our humble beginnings in the basement of the Agriculture building in downtown Raleigh. Today, our cooperative has grown to $53 billion in assets, serving nearly 2.7 million members in North Carolina and beyond. With more than 7,400 employees, a network of 273 branches, over 1,100 ATMs, 24/7 contact centers, a website and a mobile app, the growth in size and accessibility is astounding.

While we are pleased with the steady growth, safety, and soundness of our organization, we recognize that we can never become complacent in pursuing better ways to serve you. In the year ahead, we are aggressively working on digital enhancements to streamline services that will improve your overall member experience, whether you prefer to connect with SECU in person or through one of our automated channels. We also are evaluating our products and services to provide a more competitive structure based on each member’s individual situation to help ensure that we are meeting your needs. More will be shared on this very soon!

Report of the Chair

I also want to take a moment and say thank you to our members for once again voting SECU as Forbes' Best-In-State Credit Union for North Carolina. This is the third consecutive year we have held the top spot and it is an honor we do not take lightly. This accolade is a result of your ongoing support and the dedication of our employees living out the "People Helping People" philosophy each and every day.

A key part of living out that philosophy includes corporate social responsibility. Each year, SECU and our staff across the state step up for North Carolina communities in a big way – providing financial education presentations, fundraising for various organizations like March of Dimes®, volunteering countless hours for local non-profits, sponsoring community outreach events, and providing our first ever Summer Camp Awards Program for youth. SECU's impact is being carried well beyond our doors and many lives across North Carolina are being touched in a positive way.

The member-funded SECU Foundation is also doing incredible work in our state. Since its creation in 2004, the Foundation has made a collective financial commitment of over $235 million for initiatives to benefit North Carolinians statewide! I encourage you to visit www.ncsecufoundation.org to catch a glimpse of the impactful work being done in the areas of education, housing, healthcare, and human services. It is quite extraordinary what can be accomplished through the Power of a Dollar!

All of the work taking place through our cooperative takes many hands, each playing a key role in the success of our organization. In addition to our staff, I also want to share my appreciation for the thousands of volunteers who help make SECU better through their advocacy and representation.

There are over 3,500 dedicated members who serve on various boards and committees across the state, and we are deeply grateful for their commitment and dedication to SECU and our members.

In closing, I want to reiterate what an honor it is to represent an organization grounded in a philosophy of helping others. As we celebrate the past that has elevated us to where we are today, we embrace the future knowing that wherever you are in your financial journey, we are here to meet you, to advance your well-being, and to make a positive difference in your lives. Our members are why we are here, and we thank you for your support as we look expectantly ahead at the next 85 years!

MEMBER STORY

Katrina Russell: More Means Treating You Like Family

From the words of Katrina Russell, “2016 was the year that my life changed. It was the year I joined State Employees’ Credit Union.”

One of Katrina’s first experiences as a member of SECU was meeting with Wesley Smith, the Financial Services Officer at the Lincolnton branch. After evaluating her overall finances, Wesley and Katrina developed a refinancing plan that offered her substantial savings on her existing car loan. Those savings then helped her pay down several other outstanding loans that were negatively impacting her credit.

Katrina’s diligence over time helped significantly improve her overall credit as she developed a consistent repayment history with the Credit Union. In fact, she put herself in a position to apply for other SECU loans including a recent one for the car of her dreams—a 2022 Chevy Camaro!

In reflecting on her experience, Katrina noted, “Wesley honored everything he told me about the process. He guided me to get my credit straightened out and it has improved so much.” Wesley’s dedication to our members exemplifies our mission of serving others. As he says, “the best part of the process was seeing Ms. Russell’s financial growth and getting to know a great person who brings a smile to my face every time I see her. We have truly made a difference in her life, and it makes one realize as an employee how blessed you are to work for an organization that gives you the opportunity to have a positive impact in the lives of our members.”

But maybe Katrina herself says it best, “I don’t know where I would be without them helping me and guiding me. They treat you like you are family, and they sit and listen to all the concerns you may have. I wish that I would have joined sooner. If you are looking for a place to grow and build your credit while also feeling welcome, then SECU is the place you need to be!”

Expanding Products and Services to Meet Our Members' Needs

New member or third generation. Established credit or work in progress. Individual or an entire family. No matter a member's story, we provide meaningful financial services and tools that meet people wherever they are on their life's journey. This has never been more important than it is now, as we come out of the pandemic into an unstable and unknown economic environment. Throughout the past year, we've focused on expanding our products and services to better meet all our members' needs.

Borrowing Made Better

Fiscal year 2022 closed out an incredible year of helping members with their lending needs. From financing new homes to offering affordable vehicle loans, our lending specialists were there to help provide more for members than ever before. Our teams worked with members across each county to provide the buying power they needed to achieve their financial goals.

Moving forward we're working to make borrowing even better, giving our members more reasons to do business with us. All the while, we will continue to work with those members who are struggling financially or have credit issues. That's who we are and what we're about.

Giving Members More Access to Financial Confidence

We're also focused on helping members invest and insure with confidence. Throughout fiscal year 2022, our Financial Advisory Services staff continued its mission of providing life-changing services to our members at every stage of their life's journey. From building a budget, saving for college, or preparing members for retirement, our financial advisors are here to help put a plan in place to meet the life goals of our members.

SECU is More Than the Products and Services We Offer

Our teams support our members every step of the way. In person, on the phone, or digitally, we're here for our members. Along the way, we'll celebrate victories, talk through tough times, and serve as a place where neighbors catch up with one another. Our employees are trusted friends and advisors, helping members build and invest in their future. We have a passion for service and have supported millions of calls, secure messages, and other contacts over the last year.

And, we're making it even easier to get members directly to our teams who can help answer their questions, help with a transaction, or solve their problem. We're upgrading our technology, providing better tools for our staff, and expanding our channels in the future to prepare us to offer options like virtual chat. MEMBER STORY

Gloria Graves: More Means Going Above & Beyond

As a North Carolina school teacher, Gloria Graves has benefited by being an SECU member for many years. When she stopped into the Lexington branch to ask about applying for a credit card, Gloria met Chelsea Trimble, Financial Advisory Services Specialist. During their conversation, Chelsea took the opportunity to discuss a variety of financial topics, including retirement planning. However, Gloria mentioned that she thought retirement was not in the cards for her anytime soon, since she had some outstanding debt.

After Gloria left the branch, Chelsea made it her mission to come up with a comprehensive plan to help Gloria pay off her debt and start planning for her life after teaching. Part of the plan included a home equity line of credit that would allow Gloria to pay off her unsecured debt in just a few short years. The next day, Chelsea called Gloria to discuss the plan and the potential interest savings, and Gloria was overcome with emotion. She finally asked, “you came up with this plan for me? Why would you do that?” Chelsea replied, “so you can stop worrying about debt and start thinking about retirement.”

Gloria raved about Chelsea’s advice, noting “she explained the process in detail and assisted me every step of the way.” Graves continued, “after being approved, I was able to pay off my car, several high-interest rate credit card balances, and I was able to take care of some home improvements. This will allow me to retire without debt hanging over my head. Chelsea definitely went above and beyond to help an SECU member!”

Giving Members More Access to What Matters Most

We know people are busy and on the go. Our members need access, solutions, advice, and help whenever and wherever they are. Innovation will never replace the human element of what we do and who we are. We are driven by the shared goal of helping more people and growing through thoughtful intention and personalized support whether it's face-to-face or digital.

CashPoints® is the largest ATM network in North Carolina, providing SECU members with no-fee access to their money. This past year, we've focused on continuing to enhance security, modernizing our ATMs, and improving digital banking features and functionality. Moving forward, we are committed to delivering a better digital experience. From our website and our mobile app to our back-office systems, we want to ensure we are giving our members the opportunity to access and manage their money where and how they want. All of this will be designed to allow our members to better save, spend, and borrow, while making their lives easier.

MEMBER STORY

Ronda Jones: *More Means a SECU*RE Future for Families*

SECU member Ronda Jones is a busy healthcare professional and single mom of two. After graduating from nursing school, Ronda was looking for a new place to live and found out about a SECU*RE rental property from her local branch. As a wholly-owned subsidiary of SECU, SECU*RE is a property management company specializing in the leasing of residential real estate to renters across North Carolina.

She was thrilled with the rental home and soon settled in with her family. Her experience with SECU*RE was extremely positive and she developed a great relationship with her local SECU*RE representative, Kim Benfield. Ronda noted, “Kim ensured that every tenant repair was made quickly and professionally. I have nothing but praise for SECU*RE.”

Even though renting was Ronda’s initial path, her goal was always to become a homeowner. As a member of SECU, she had the support from local branch staff to help with this important goal. Statesville SVP Andrew Griffin worked with Ronda to help prepare her for future homeownership, assisting her with budgeting and credit education. Ronda refers to Andrew as her “financial coach” and said, “Andrew wanted to see me succeed as a homeowner.”

After renting for seven years, the opportunity to purchase the home from SECU*RE became an option for Ronda. She would now be able to purchase the home she fell in love with and the place where she raised her two children.

In February of 2022, Ronda became a proud homeowner! She concluded, “I would recommend State Employees’ Credit Union to all my family because they have been very good to me.”

“I would recommend State Employees’ Credit Union to all my family because they have been very good to me.”

Together, We Provide More

It's all personal to us. Offering a dog treat to a furry friend. Providing a co-worker a ride home at the end of the day. Taking an extra moment just to listen. SECU is a place where members are greeted by name and job openings are opportunities to give back while building a real future. From members to employees, we're invested in people because they've trusted us with their livelihood. Something our organization never takes for granted. That trust drives our attention to detail when it comes to deciding how we continue to grow alongside our employees and members, and is an integral part of what makes us different from our competitors.

We believe that the best way to cultivate a passion for service is to take care of our employees to ensure they feel like they are a part of something greater and have the room to grow and flourish within our organization. We're dedicated to keeping that goal top of mind in everything we do. We feel it every day, and our success is shown by the accolades our staff achieves, like being named for the third consecutive year as the best Credit Union in North Carolina according to Forbes.

Providing the absolute best for our employees means more than just competitive pay. It means good healthcare, paid benefits, opportunities for professional advancement, a collaborative and inclusive environment, and an organizational commitment to work-life balance.

Our Employees on SECU Today and Tomorrow

“The overall feeling that you belong to something that does good for others.”

“I'm excited about... the culture, great executive leadership, and opportunity we have ahead of us.”

More Means a Brighter Future for Everyone

The culture of SECU has never been more welcoming and inclusive to both our current and future family members. From an increased focus on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion initiatives to more opportunities to help the communities we serve, we're dedicated to not only providing More for Members but also to creating a better environment and a brighter future for those who have joined us by working in our branches and offices across the state.

“The only reason to reinvent yourself is to remain relevant. It is to know all of the things we have done for the past 85 years won't necessarily be the same things we need to do to remain relevant for the next 85.”

Emma Hayes, Chief Culture Officer

Improving Lives Across Communities

We're so much more than a financial institution. For us, it's all about people. Our members. Our employees. Our neighbors. We all do better together. Our collaborative efforts to support good causes across our footprint allow us to make an impact in the communities we serve.

We're here to help you learn the ins and outs of finances. Through financial education programs and presentations, we hope to provide members, students, business partners, and the general public with the helpful information they need to make smart financial decisions.

Because communities are stronger when we come together as one, our employees volunteer thousands of hours each year to serve local and statewide charities. And last year, we supported causes like the March of Dimes, launched an inaugural youth summer camp award, and helped teachers by collaborating with the Governor's office for their annual school supply drive. We couldn't have done this without our local Advisory Board members. These members are appointed by the Board of Directors and serve local branches by providing feedback and advice to the staff and Board of Directors. As local volunteers, they represent the interests of members living in the communities served by SECU. Many projects the Foundation has funded over the years began as suggestions from Advisory Board members.

Funding More Opportunities Across North Carolina

As individual members we may not have a large impact, but collectively and cooperatively, the member-funded SECU Foundation goes a long way toward helping address needs in our neighborhoods, schools, and communities. The Foundation promotes local and community development by primarily funding high-impact projects in the areas of housing, education, health care, and human services across all 100 counties in North Carolina. Thanks in part to member contributions, more than 430 graduating seniors at public high schools in the state each year receive a $10,000 scholarship. At the end of the year, these students are presented awards at ceremonies often attended by SECU Advisory Board members.

“This has been an incredible year of making a life-changing impact across North Carolina. To date, the Foundation has donated over two hundred and thirty-five million dollars to organizations across the state. We look forward to next year as we continue to further our mission of helping those in need and sharing more stories of the impacts made by our wonderful grantees. Thank you to all SECU members who donate, and to all those who lend their support. We could not do it without you.”

A Letter of Gratitude from your President & CEO

Just over a year ago, I started a new journey as President and CEO of State Employees' Credit Union. My roots run deep within this industry, having served more than 25 years in credit union management roles, but unlike those who held this position before me, I was completely new to SECU. I was humbled and honored to be selected by the Board to lead this incredible, service-driven organization that embodies the "People Helping People" philosophy... and also happens to be the second largest credit union in the United States.

From the outside looking in, you might wonder how a credit union based solely in North Carolina could be in this position, but from the inside view, it's easy... it's the people. It starts with those who work here, over 7,400 dedicated individuals who walk the credit union walk – doing the right thing, helping and serving others, engaging in their communities, and working each day to make a positive difference. Then we have our amazing members, nearly 2.7 million of you who call SECU their financial home – relatives, friends, neighbors, some we've seen many times and others we've never seen face-to-face, but all part of our unique and diverse Credit Union family. Over 3,500 take their membership to another level by volunteering on Advisory Boards and committees across the state to represent fellow members and help guide our financial cooperative. What an impressive group!

Over the last year, I've taken many road trips... meeting our staff and members in communities across North Carolina. I've had a lot of conversations, snapped a lot of "selfies" with the crew, and learned what is working well and where we could use some improvement. Digital transformation and expanded products and services are top priorities as we work to offer better ways to serve you wherever you are and however you want to connect with your Credit Union. We are listening, learning, and adapting – our vision is to make SECU even greater for our employees and our members.

We recently celebrated a tremendous milestone, our 85th anniversary. As we honor our rich history and the 17 individuals who started it all back in 1937, we also share an excitement for what the future holds for SECU. It will be nothing short of AMAZING!

To all of you who make up our Credit Union family, I thank you from the bottom of my heart for your ongoing support. I am looking forward to continuing this journey with you as we embark on the next 85 years of exceptional service!

Sincerely,

Jim Hayes
